

Remember I am Still Me Album

Residents and staff can produce an album, that has a photo of each resident and a blog about their life so far and what kind of person they are, what they like to do now etc. It's about respect, of the individual and remembering they are still themselves. I did this album with residents and staff that I work with, it was fulfilling.

Equipment needed

- Album

This activity was posted by: Thornwood Hall